Features

---

Internal ventilation

The temperature inside the wine cooler distributed evenly through the wine cooler. There are no hotter / colder zones.

Vibration protection

Vibrations disturb the naturally occurring sediment in wine, which will disturb the natural aging process of wine. Vibrations cause movement which will age wine and cause excessive heat. This Qlima wine cooler is designed to limit vibrations to a minimum so that your wine rests disturbance free.

Electronic display

The unit is equipped with an electronic display (LCD) which provides clear information easy to read.

---

Interior light

The modern blue interior LED-light is helpful when viewing and selecting from your wine collection. It also make the wine cooler an eye-catcher in your kitchen or living room.

Suitable for Built-in and Free standing

This wine cooler is suitable to be built into existing counters and cabinetry as they include a front vent located under the door that channels heat forward away from the unit. The unit can also be used free-standing.

Reversible Door

This wine cooler comes with the option of changing the direction the door will swing. The procedure of changing the door direction is very easy. Directions can be found in the user manual of the unit.
